

YOUTH RECONCILIATION AMBASSADORS
Interactive and Interdisciplinary Programme on European Integration
as a tool for the Regional Reconciliation

September 8 – 13, 2013: Belgrade, Serbia
Come to Belgrade meet the Region

Call for Applicants

YOUTH RECONCILIATION AMBASSADORS is very intensive programme which includes five-day study visit, peer to peer education, media appearances and essay publishing.

The study visit will be held in Belgrade, September 8 – 13, the first and the last date named being the arrival and departure date.

The idea of this programme is to encourage multi-perspective discussions on topics relevant to the future of the entire area of former Yugoslavia. We strongly believe in the exchange of experiences between young people from neighbouring countries, which are all at different stages of transition, could help form new ideas and overcome conflicts from the past. Our belief is that only in this way peaceful development of the region will be possible.

The curriculum consists of three core topics, which will be elaborated in very intensive 8 hour working day: EU Integration, History Education and the process of Reconciliation in the Region. Selection process will be conducted based on applicants' essay, activity plan and desire to become person who will promote cooperation between Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo*, Macedonia and Serbia. Selected participants will attend lectures and visit different types of institutions (government, embassies, universities, political parties and NGOs). Programme lecturers and moderators are well educated experts drawn from diplomacy, governmental institutions, universities and non-governmental organisations.

In the afternoon debates will be organised with the idea to exchange thoughts and work-out the solutions for the cooperation among youth.

All successful participants will be issued a certificate and honour to become second group of the Youth Reconciliation Ambassadors

YOUTH EDUCATION COMMITTEE is a non-governmental organisation seated in Belgrade. It aims at compensating for the critical gaps made within the system of formal education: this system contributes to the authoritarian society and obstructs development of critical thinking.

Therefore the organisation strives to provide the youth in Serbia proper informal education, as well as to address long-term analysis of the formal, evaluate changes and give recommendations to the institutions responsible. The goal of the Youth Education Committee is to equip young people with enough knowledge and skills to ensure their active role in society.

Members of the Youth Education Committee are young and skilful enthusiasts’ graduates and university students who are determined to invest their time, knowledge and energy into making a greater future. Regardless of their political and social background, they are united in struggle for freedom, democracy and human rights.
